

During the UEWC Select Committee of 31st October we have remarked to Unicredit central management the very problematic situation involving ES SSC' workers and activities, located in Italy and Austria ES SSC branches.

The Unicredit management have to immediately find solution in order to solve the continuous mistake and considerable problems concerning pay-roll, leaves and all activities related to employees' administrative management, that are bringing many inconveniences to Unicredit employees.

Due to management industrial wrong decisions, ES SSC' workers are living, for a long time, a very difficult situation every day in their work place.

The UEWC Select Committee have asked to Unicredit Central Management the only solution able to settle the disservice and to safeguarding the occupation, is the prompt return of ES SSC workers and the insourcing of its activities in Unicredit Group.
